Pastoral Council

Voting Procedure: From 14th. April, ballot papers will be available at the doors of the three churches in the parish. You are requested to take one with you and vote for a person in your area. There are three areas Ballinaglera (three people to be elected) Doobally (two people to be elected) and Newbridge (two people to be elected). It is important that there is gender balance on the Pastoral Council so please vote for one man and one woman in your area. Before you vote please speak to the person you are voting for to see if they are prepared to serve on the Pastoral Council.

Please note if you have served on two consecutive terms on the Pastoral Council you are not eligible for election on this occasion.

Confirmation on the Friday 6th. May at 6:00pm in Ballinaglera Church.

First Holy Communion on Saturday 21st May at 12 noon in Ballinaglera Church.

Palm Sunday is the Sunday before Easter that begins the Holy Week. It is the day that we remember and celebrate the day Jesus entered into Jerusalem as Saviour and King. As Jesus rode a donkey into the town of Jerusalem a large crowd gathered and laid palm branches and their cloaks across the road, giving Jesus royal treatment. The hundreds of people shouted "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!", As we begin this Holy Week, may we constantly be reminded of its significance and value for our lives today. That very important day in history, when Jesus began His journey towards the cross. Yet maybe in the midst of our busy lives, on the heels of Spring, or in all of the upcoming thoughts about Easter, the real meaning of it may, even unintentionally, get missed.

Special Invitation

I would like to invite as many people as possible attend the Easter Ceremonies. I extend a special invitation to people who may not be attending Mass on a regular basis to make an extra effort for Easter as we commemorate the most important sacred event in our salvation history.
